records and documents are maintained in electronic form, all the requirements relating to Information Technology Act, 2000, including any statutory amendment(s) or modification(s) thereto, shall be adhered to.

In case of switch-over to another electronic system, it should be ensured that all the records in the old electronic system should be migrated to new electronic system and all old records are accessible in the new system.

7. DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

All information generated in the course of the Company's business activities that is not required to be retained must be safely destroyed or discarded as soon as practicable, but in any event within 180 days of the completion of the project/assignment/contract.

Physical:

The Documents should be destroyed at the end of the preservation period specified under Clause 5 of this Policy. The destruction should be carried out in a way that preserves the confidentiality of any information they contain, if so required. A record should be kept about the Documents that have been destroyed.

Records which are required to be maintained for certain period of time, shall be added to the archive when it no longer has a business need. Files or items when added to the archive will be recorded on a database that shall be maintained by the facilities and retrieving the records from the archive must be for valid business reasons.

Documents should be shredded through a paper shredding machine and not sold as scrap.

Electronic:

Electronic information, including e-mails that are no longer required to be retained, must be purged using appropriate techniques which ensure that the data cannot be reconstructed from the storage media on which it resided. Records stored on magnetic media must be destroyed by reformatting at least once. However, the backup copies of the records must also be destroyed.

8. RESPONSIBILITY

Company Secretary or any person authorized by the Board shall be responsible for monitoring the implementation of this Policy.

9. REVIEW AND AMENDMENT

The Policy shall be reviewed as and when required to ensure that it meets the objectives of the Statutory Provisions and remains effective.

This Policy shall be reviewed periodically and may be amended by the Board of Directors of the Company, as may be deemed necessary.
